ACADEMY RELEASES APP

U.S. AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. – The U.S. Air Force Academy will release a new app Wednesday for iTunes and Android.

The app will be a free download and is a one-stop-shop for Academy news, photos and videos on Android and iTunes enabled devices.

Some highlights of the app include links to up-to-the-minute Academy news and sports stories. The app also includes photos which can be downloaded and set as the device's wallpaper. Other notables are Twitter and YouTube feeds, polls, admissions information and calendars. There is also a 'share' button allowing users to recommend the app to friends.

The App will be available through iTunes and Android, but links to the site will be posted on the Air Force Academy's web page at www.usafa.af.mil and Facebook page, at <http://www.facebook.com/USAFA.Official> .
