Subject: Care packages for Doolies

The postmaster (at the Academy) asked me to get the word out that they do not have space to stack up boxes so please, do not send your care packages for the Doolies until around the 2nd of August. The packages cannot be picked up until after the Acceptance Parade on 4 August. Also, they are already receiving letters for the Doolies and have not even set up the post office boxes yet! It would be better to wait to mail letters until around the 4th week of June.
