Subject: summer/perm squadrons

After speaking to one of our NY clubs this morning and having to tell her I couldn't just send out the entire squadron list because it had pobs on it, I started checking the data base and discovered I could access a different list which does not show the pobs (they are privacy info). So, attached is a list of all basic cadets which shows the summer and first year academic squadrons. Feel free to give your new parents the info (and they won't need to email me!).

Thanks New York!!
