All,

As you recall, ESPN chose to totally ignore the best pre-game show of their history last week by not showing the USAFA Wings of Blue Team parachute in with the game ball, the state flags of Alabama and Texas and the American Flag. They also chose not to show the flyover. One of the parents posted the following youtube video so that we can all see it and enjoy it now. It is excellent. Not sure I'll ever understand why ESPN would choose not to show this outstanding pre-game patriotic display. Enjoy and please pass it on to your groups.
